Mix up the cards and place them face down on the desk/table. 2. If there are 2 players, each student takes 4 dominos. If there are 3 players, each student takes 3 dominos. 3. The first player LAYS a domino of his/her choice in the center and NAMES the two pictures on his/her domino. "Look: (name of picture) and (name of picture)." If he/she has problem naming the picture(s), he/she says: "Partner, help me!" The partner helps him/her identify the pictures. If the partner has a problem identifying the picture(s), he/she asks the teacher to help. "Your turn. Do you have a good domino?" "Do you have (name of one picture)? Do you have (name of the other picture)?" 4. If he/she has a matching domino, the next player places his/her domino next to a matching illustration on the table* NAMING the matching pictures. He/she also NAMES the second picture on his/her domino. "Look: (name of matching picture on the table) and (name of matching picture on his/her domino)! And look: (name of the other picture on his domino)! OK, your turn. Do you have a good domino? Do you have a (name of one matching possibility) ? Do you have a (name of another matching possibility)?" *If the next player can't put a domino that matches an illustration from a domino already on the table, he/she picks a domino in the pile and misses his/her turn. "No good domino? Big problem! Pick one card. My turn." 5. The game continues with each player taking turns until one of the player gets rid of all his/her dominos.
